

Create Edamam API documentation

- Sign up for an account with Edamam

- Choose Recipes as that's what the search will do

In the code : Request the user to search for an ingredient

- Create a function that makes the request

- If the search is found display recipes gotten from the API.

- Else: Display not found

- Try again

make_request()